2. The study programme allows full-time study.

Article 2 Conditions for admission

1. In accordance with Section 48(1) of the Act, the basic condition for admission to study into a master's degree study programme is the acquisition of a higher education (at least Bachelor's degree) in appropriate or equivalent study programme.
2. Another condition for admission to study are the prerequisites for studying the study programme in question, as defined in Section 49(1) of the Act; this is verified by an admission examination. An admission examination can be waived.

Article 3 Waiver of the entrance examination

1. The entrance examination may be waived at the applicant's request only if he/she was admitted to the Integrative Urban Studies study program for the academic year 2025/2026 and at the same time due to objective and non-culpable reasons (such as delays in the visa process), was unable to enroll by September 30, 2025.

2. Applicants must apply for a waiver of the entrance examination in writing and provide the necessary documents by 30 November 2025.
3. The applicant shall be notified by 5 January 2026 electronically to the e-mail address provided in the e-application whether the application for waiver of the entrance examination has been granted. At the same time, the notification is made available in the electronic application form.

Article 4 Maximum number of admitted applicants

1. In total, 20 applicants can be admitted.
2. Applicants with any governmental scholarship¹ awarded can be admitted to study over this limit. These applicants must fulfill all conditions of acceptance given by this decision and the law, including the admission examination (see article 8). This examination can be held on a special date in this case.
3. Applicants who have been granted waiver of the entrance examination pursuant to Article 3 may be admitted over the limit specified in paragraph 1.

Article 5 Opening of the study programme

The study programme does not have to be opened, if less than 15 applicants successfully passed the entrance examination according to article 8.

Article 6 Deadline for submitting the application for admission to study

Admission applications can be submitted in the following periods from 1 November 2025 to 31 March 2026.
